THE TRIBUNE.

Matters and Things in Washington. From our Special Correspondent. Washington, Monday, April 9.

No treaty yet, nor will there be for eight or ten years to come. In a conversation with Senator Walker to-day, he gives it as his unqualified opinion still, that when the question is put to a vote they will throw thirds for the Annexation in the Senate.

Believe I wrote to say that the British Minister here has not disavowed to this Government any Government having any political or commercial designs on Texas, as stated in the Exchange.

The present House of Representatives sets itself as a specimen of economy and retrenchment; and yet the other day when an attempt was made to introduce the celebrated Drummond Light, for the purpose of lighting the Hall of the House, it denounced as a "Yankee invention" and denounced it.

The South Carolina, Georgia and other Texas anti-Tariff members now say that the House will not by any possibility adjourn before August 1st. It is the settled determination of these men to induce the Senate to reject the Treaty to induce a Bill into the House for extending territorial Government over the whole of Texas.

By a document recently laid before Congress, it appears that the Peruvian Government have sent to pay to our Minister at Callao $30,000 for ten years, on the 1st of January each, commencing with Jan. 1, 1844, for the use of our citizens.

It appears that more money is wanted to pay expenses of the Florida War. The Secretary of War has asked for $147,984, now in the treasury, transferred for that purpose, and a further appropriation of $159,594, making a total of $307,578. Query—How much more will be needed after this has all been expended?

Hon. Benjamin F. Butler leaves his morning for the Hermite, to see and consult with Jackson about the Texas question and one two minor matters. He goes as an Envoy in Mr. Van Buren. Before he left he had one two long and confidential interviews with Mr. Van Buren, who received him quite cordially.

It is pretty well understood here that Mr. Van Buren has a letter written in favor of the Annexation of Texas, ready to be published as soon as he is considered advisable, if it is thought to be necessary to carry the State of Virginia. If Mr. Ritchie and Gen. Jackson say the contrary, Van Buren's letter will be published, and sending round about with this view, and Benton is gone out to feel the pulse of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois on the subject.

It is singular that whilst the Indiana and Illinois members follow the instructions of their legislatures so belligerently about Oregon, they all disregard the instructions of the same legislatures which require them to advocate the annexation of Texas, and Kennedy and Hannegan are both particularly violent against any measure the latter having thought it his duty to make a speech against it.
